

OUR SPEAKER

LYDIA BROWNBACK

Lydia Brownback, author and speaker at women's events internationally, is passionate about promoting biblical doctrine with a high view of God. Although a city girl at heart, she's currently living among cows and cornfields in beautiful Upstate New York. Lydia worked on the editorial team at Crossway for several years, and before that she served as writer-in-residence for Alistair Begg and as producer of The Bible Study Hour radio program with James Montgomery Boice.

Any cancellations made after that time will not be refunded. Keep in mind this is a women's only event. We do not provide childcare, however, nursing infants are welcome provided the infant does not disturb the meetings. We will be collecting an offering this year for a local charity called The Place of Refuge. Through direct counseling, this charity primarily

THIS YEAR'S OFFERING

This year we will be collecting for a local charity. The Place of Refuge is a place of help...of healing...of hope. Their work in providing professional, trauma-informed, culturally-sensitive, faith-based counseling and training services to North Philadelphia residents is rooted in their desire to see this community uplifted and encouraged, and left stronger in the Lord. Many walk through these doors feeling hopeless and afraid. Yet, through the work of the Spirit, invited into this deep and meaningful process, many leave Refuge feeling hope restored and renewed—some after many years in darkness. The Place of Refuge is keenly aware that what they do could not be accomplished except through the power of Christ at work in each of the lives of their counselors and staff. Supporting this ministry helps keep their doors open for those who are broken and hurting and who truly seek a place of restoration and healing. Their heartfelt prayer is that God would allow them to continue this much-needed work for many more years to come.

serves women, couples, and families impacted by trauma, abuse, depression, grief and loss. Thank you in advance for your willingness to help in this way.
